LOCAL CHURCH GLOW LEADER

The purpose of the local church GLOW leader is to have regular communication between the GLOW literature evangelists at the church, the pastoral staff, and the Student Literature Ministries Department for the conference.

Here's a summary of the local church GLOW leader's job:

1. Check in with the GLOW literature evangelists and see how they are doing.
 - a. Find out how they are doing with the commitments they have made for distributing literature.
 - b. Offer encouragement to them, especially those involved in level 2 or higher.
 - c. See if they have any exciting experiences to share.
 - d. Pray with them
2. Recruit new GLOW Literature evangelists.
3. Arrange for regular (weekly if possible) testimony time in church to share GLOW experiences. There is a GLOW Weekly Testimony email sent each Friday to provide a GLOW story to share if needed.
4. Organize literature distribution for the church:
 - a. Sabbath afternoons in the church's community.
 - Level 1: non-door to door distribution
 - Level 2: door to door distribution (combine with survey or prayer request if desired)
 - b. At events in the area, such as large gatherings you can pass out literature as the people exit.
 - c. Other
5. Connect church with upcoming events, such as GLOW rallies, distribution events, etc.
6. Get to know some of the benefits and principles of literature distribution, as discussed in books like *Colporteur Ministry and Publishing Ministry.
7. Order literature and supplies for the church when they are running low.

* A free copy of Colporteur Ministry will be made available to all local church GLOW leaders.
